

THE 13 ASPECTS OF TRUE HUMILITY

(Unlucky for the Self?)

1 DEFERENCE

The most respectful conduct.

To know that, even though you might think you are 110% correct, you might still be wrong, except where it has been confirmed or taught you by The Lord<sup>1</sup>.

The deepest respect and admiration for a Person, which inclines one to accept this particular Person's Wisdom above one's own, and the act of putting this into practice when circumstances are requiring it! i.e. when one is convinced (completely blind - con-vinced) that one is right but The Lord does not see likewise.

2 DEMURENESS

To be markedly quiet, composed, graceful, unruffled and undemonstrative in general; to be conspicuously inconspicuous; to not seek after other's observation nor need other's observation (an audience).

To "become a passer-by", not a "fashion-statement" or "walking pornography" or "trumpet-mouth".

To accentuate and likewise appreciate in others too, the Peace, Calm & Invisibility (to human eyes) of the spirit, rather than the Vanity, Excitement and Curves of the body.

To not seek nor need to be the centre-of-attraction, whether overtly, or subtly and craftily - Self-deceivingly.

3 DOCILITY

To be easy to teach and willing to obey; cloaked with gentleness and helpfulness.

Attentive to superior's instructions and not one's own wants and cravings.

To stop questioning (doubting) and begin accepting (having True Faith). People waste so much time in seeking to work out what they see (with their lunatic<sup>2</sup>, fragile minds). I declare to you that in the seeing My Purpose all is done".

4 GENUINENESS or UNPRETENTIOUSNESS

To not feign in fraud or jest.

To not lie or "make-believe"; to make no false professions of purpose, even in your own mind; no making or even thinking unfounded claims.

To carry no airs whatsoever; to know & accept that one has infinitely less wisdom than God & The Lord.

To never expect, for that is the realm of imagination & make-believe.

To say exactly what you mean and mean exactly what you say, from a certain point-of-view.

To have the most serious mind and the deepest commitment.

To keep your word even under the most adverse circumstances (your word is your passport to Eternal Life - don't sell it to prolong your human's very brief life for a little while longer).

To repent of any wrong-doings with strength of conviction (real determination) never to do it again, rather than allow one-Self to feel sad, without Hope and cry about it and keep dwelling on one's past sins and on what a "failure" one is, which doesn't do much Good and feeds the Self (pity) with very strong emotions (Cord, in the Silent Flute<sup>3</sup>, accepts his sin stoically and determines never to do it again, instead of pleading vainly to Father or to others that he is weak and that he cannot do what He asks, which is a lie), which naturally tends to cause one to think about sinning directly after one has finished wailing, bemoaning and "saying" sorry.

You must remain brave not only during the more pleasant parts of the Fight but also when you see the weaknesses in your-Self and your mistakes.

5 GRATEFULNESS

Being thankful for Kindness, Mercy & Love shown.

The act of finding Joy in the knowledge of Father & The Lord's Love for you.

To never take anything or anyone for granted.

To show & demonstrate gratitude with actions not just words.

To practice and Perfect the act of identifying the myriad number of reasons Life provides us to be thankful for, and in so doing open our (spiritual) eyes; the Cup that runneth over because the realization, the knowledge, of Father's Love for us is too big for just one person to contain.

Yes, He DOES Love you THAT much! Don't ever forget that and LEARN it if you haven't already. Even though it's hard for us to understand why, most of the time, because of our sins. You need His Love in the first place, to conquer adversity: you cannot conquer adversity without It. He gives without expecting a return. What need is there to sin when you are fully satisfied, indeed overflowing, with His Love? Never was it said: "go and sin no more and then I'll forgive (Love) you", but: "I forgive (Love) you. Go and sin no more".

6 LOWLINESS

Having a low (i.e. the correct) estimate of one's own importance; not placed high or reaching far up or attaining a high degree; of humble rank or slight development (spiritually).

Knowing our true nature - that of vanquished fallen Beings of Light, imprisoned inside loathsome animals<sup>2</sup>, and remaining aware of this fact 24 hours a day.

To know oneself to be as the dust of the Earth, nothing more nothing less.

To be conscious at all times of one's station - servant and student - and to never (at no time henceforth) depart from it; to never (on no occasion) forget your insanity or be deceived into believing you are cured, whilst Satan still seeks to devour our souls (with lies and deceptions)!

7 MEEKNESS

To be tame-spirited (taming of the Self by the "tame" or gentle spirit); to continuously quell any violence in oneself.

To make oneself approachable by any, without compromising one's principles, by getting rid of any suggestion of aggressiveness and impatience in you.

Seeing the Good in everyone.

To not rely upon one's own logic or point-of-view and try and force it on others.

To kill any desire to be liked or loved, especially above others, and to never question the fact that Father and The Lord love you just as much as they do everyone else.

The practice of immediately restraining and suffocating (killing) any impulses and emotions.

Not doing things in a rush and without due consideration.

8 MODESTY

Not overrating one's own merit (see LOWLINESS).

Unassuming not making any assumptions about anything, including about yourself and others.

Not excessive in any manner, whether with food or talk or anything else connected to the five earthly senses.

Pure-minded (having one-mind, the Being, and listening only to Father and not Satan will ensure this).

Placing oneself neither above nor beneath any other human+Being<sup>2</sup>, in words, deeds and your heart.

Keeping check on YOUR Self first and foremost all the time rather than on others.

To refrain from seeking any kind of appreciation from other human+Beings and to do everything for God.

9 OBEDIENCE

Submissive to Superior's will, without questioning.

Thorough recognition of Teacher's authority and status and subsequent unhesitant carrying-out of His orders; complete Loyalty to ONE Lord (no man can serve two...) in thought, word and deed; no whoring and infidelity caused by the wanting to discuss or even hear the opinions (lies) of The Lord's Enemy.

10 OBSEQUIOUSNESS

Fawning, or rather - doting on one's Saviour.

Fearing letting go of Father's Hand.

Always seeking His Guidance for everything; as a child with his parents, as sheep with The Shepherd, reluctant to leave His Side; brought on after understanding that all that is not God's Will is vanity, unreal and fleeting, and fearing "Being" left on your own again with your madness and lack of any purpose or direction and instruction, facing certain doom. "There is a freedom that enslaves us, and a slavery that Frees us."

11 PROPRIETY

Properness (sense of right and wrong).

To maintain the correct conduct and attitude of a JE-DI<sup>4</sup> and Perfect it (My Spirit brooks no stagnation).

To accept "there is no why", there is just a right way and a wrong way of doing things; True righteousness (Spiritual certainty not philosophical "theories").

12 SUBMISSIVENESS

Unresisting: to accept without resistance the orders or treatment or lot (fate) met with.

To give way; yield to authority; "Islam" - submit to God (gladly).

13 SUBSERVIENCE

To be under the authority of; to be answerable to a higher power; to be in the sub-lime-King's-service; to submit one's own will to that of his Lord's.

And enjoy the Joy and Freedom that only True Discipline (Discipleship) brings!
